

TARGET #5

I've been a target for many years but I really noticed the craziness around me about 2 years ago! In a nutshell My whole family is involved and friends I never had a chance to finish school due to it! The slander, rumors all due to it! Right now I need a lot of prayer, my situation is as follows I have 3 older brothers 2 second oldest are twins they took my information gave it to their girlfriends to stay in the country now it's bad really bad! Before my father died rest his soul let's just say I was told no warned about them being evil and a evil plot! Things are unfolding now that I'm having total recall! I was told I wasn't allowed near my father in his last days and now the same has occurred with my mother! They are waiting for her passing to attack me and my family take away my protection my daughter oh my God I'm scared for my daughter if I die they will turn her into a slave I'm in tears everyday just thinking about it! Yes I want blood really bad I'm dealing with pure evil I'm in exile I don't leave my home it's hard to step out! Time is running out for me my mother is very ill I don't know how long she has! They are psychopaths/Sociopaths that I'm dealing with like demons! My story is long and gets really weird spiritually, I'm a Ordained Minister get the picture please pray for me I really need it God has something I must do and I'm not in the study for it and my heart isn't in it either!
