

My exploration of Gaye's website has allowed me to reread many of the scriptures I once thought were of little significance for my own life. After carefully reading through the site, I now see things very differently. As I read I found truth &, hear me when I say this, not Gaye's truth but GOD'S truth. As you read you must bring yourself close to GOD, taking notes on everything, checking back to the scriptures & examining yourself. GOD will bring light to what you find there.

As a result of carefully examining myself & drawing closer to the Lord I have been given the ability to chase the demons off & I am no longer a target. Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven & whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man, woman to whom the Lord shall not impute sin. I beseech you to follow my example. Your GOD is waiting & loves you very much. Truth in HIS name, Jerry Beasely
