

And it shall come to pass,
that whosoever shall call on the NAME of the Lord
shall be delivered....
Joel 2:32

CHOOSE YOUR NAMES CAREFULLY!

Both biblical Testaments provide ample evidence that names matter. In this lock & key game world precision is essential & what was 'winked' at in the past is now an inescapable doctrinal issue of life & death. Yet, believers continue to frivolously call out to the generic 'God' & the falsely named 'Jesus'.

Certainly we were not raised on the necessity to speak these names for good reason. Our enemies have long understood that words, like numbers & number sequences, unlock gateways & that speaking the proper names of the Most High God & His son will open doors that cannot be opened without a discerning respect for these verbal keys. Fully aware of the authoritative power that can ONLY be unleashed by using the correct names, our adversaries were careful to systematically & thoroughly extract them from almost all contemporary biblical texts & institutional dialog. Yes, this was purposefully calculated & to our great disadvantage.

For those of you who are unaware, the name 'Yeshua' in Hebrew means 'Salvation'. The word 'Jesus' in English cannot have this meaning because it is not a translation but a transliteration. It gets even worse. The transliterated conversion was not a single slide from Hebrew to English. Rather it was a three-fold bastardization, from Hebrew to Greek, from Greek to the Latin of Roman Catholicism &, finally, from Latin to English. When you are calling on the name of 'Jesus', make no mistake, you are calling on a satanic contrivance.

And she shall bring forth a son,
and thou shalt call his name JESUS (Yeshua=Salvation):
for he shall save his people from their sins.
Matthew 1:21

And in his name shall the Gentiles trust....
Matthew 12:21

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name,
that will I do,
that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
John 14:13

The Mosaic Commandment to never use the name of God in vain bears the unequivocal stipulation that offenders will NOT go unpunished.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain;
for the Lord will not hold him guiltless
that taketh his name in vain.
Exodus 20:7

The Jews have mistakenly taken this to mean that one must never pronounce the actual name of God in spite of the fact that it is biblically stipulated that calling upon it will ensure our deliverance.

And it shall come to pass,
that whosoever shall call on the NAME of the Lord shall be delivered:
31 The sun shall be turned into darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the great and terrible day of the Lord come.
32 And it shall come to pass,
that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord
shall be delivered:

for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance,
as the Lord hath said,
and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call.
Joel 2:31-32

For there is no difference between the Jew & the Greek:
for the same Lord over all is rich unto ALL that call upon him.
For whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord
shall be saved.
Romans 10:12-13

If the scriptures require the speaking of God's name to achieve salvation, then one can only conclude that the Jews have also been victimized by an insidious doctrinal misinterpretation. The correct meaning of not taking the name of God in vain is of course that those who have intentionally perverted the Truth of God's word will assuredly reap what they have sown.

This then brings us to the subject of the name of the Most High God to whom Christ commanded we pray. Within the last few years His name has been discovered in original paleo-Hebraic texts archived by the Israeli government. The scholar who made this discovery can be viewed via a link on the Letters4 page at Wisdomabovegold.com entitled, 'Call On His Name'. Because I can neither write nor read paleo-Hebrew, I will spell the name phonetically for you in English. It's this:

YODHEVAHE

Since learning to speak these proper names I have discovered the value of testing the many people who contact me claiming to be 'Christian'. What follows is the declaration I require of them before proceeding with any prolonged contact:

'Truth before Yodhevahe, in the name of Yeshua of Nazareth,
I declare that Yeshua of Nazaeth is my Lord & Savior.
May I incur the fullest wrath of Yodhevahe
if I have not spoken what I believe to be true.'

The first step is to ask the person to watch the video 'Call On His Name' so that he/she will have the time to practice pronunciation. However, upon making the follow-up contact they are expected to speak the oath.

It has been my experience that, if they are not authentic, upon requesting that they make the declaration the phone will often abruptly click off. Usually, they call back attempting to use the distraction to steer the conversational focus onto a variety of diversionary topics. Another tactic is to pretend that they are having great difficulty remembering & pronouncing the names. It is critical to not allow yourselves to be manipulated during the process. Certainly separating the truth speakers from the liars is a crucial protective measure for all Targeted Individuals & I highly recommend you authenticate all the people that surround you in this manner. Incidentally, the hallmark of the true believer is that he/she will make the declaration without hesitation & with appreciative enthusiasm. You will NOT offend the authentic follower of Christ.

Sensitive though the issue may be, I must remind you to not be shy about making this request of your 'Christian' spouses as well. The reality is that the adversary is more than willing to employ the 'Strategy of Balaam' to access or prevent your inheritance. (Please refer to chapter sixteen.) Calculating spouses can present as either 'baby' or sophisticated Christians. In addition to their assignment to make you look insane, they are sent into the institutions to 'dumb down' & distort the doctrine, all the while appearing to be staunchly moral because YOU are standing at their side. Hopefully you will find the courage to make it past the sadness & painful denial to do what is necessary to save yourselves & others from these vile predators.

What follows is more scriptural evidence of the importance of using proper names:

He that hath an ear,
let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches;
To him that overcometh will I give to eat
of the hidden manna,
and will give him a white stone,
and in the stone a new name written,
which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

Revelation 2:17

Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram,
but thy name shall be Abraham;

for a father of many nations have I made thee.

Genesis 17:5

And God said unto Abraham,

As for Sarai thy wife,
thou shalt not call her name Sarai,

but Sarah shall her name be.

Genesis 17:15

28 And he said,

Thy name shall be called no more Jacob,
but Israel:

for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men,
and hast prevailed.

Genesis 32:28

24 And David comforted Bathsheba his wife,
and went in unto her, and lay with her:
and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon:
and the Lord loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet;

and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the Lord.

2Samuel 12:24-25

And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD,

What is thy name,

that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him,

Why askest thou thus after my name,

seeing it is secret?

Judges 13:17-18

Re: the birth of John the Baptist:

59And it came to pass,

that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child;

and they called him Zacharias,

after the name of his father.

60And his mother answered and said,

Not so; but he shall be called John.

61And they said unto her,

There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62And they made signs to his father,
how he would have him called.

63And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying,

His name is John.

And they marvelled all.

64And his mouth was opened immediately,
and his tongue loosed,
and he spake, and praised God.

65And fear came on all that dwelt round about them:
and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea.

66And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying,

What manner of child shall this be!

And the hand of the Lord was with him.

Luke 1:59-66
